
Shoah ↗

Wikipedia • The Holocaust, known in Hebrew as the Shoah, was the genocide of European Jews during World War II. From 1941 to 1945, Nazi Germany and its collaborators systematically murdered around six million Jews across German-occupied Europe, approximately two-thirds of Europe's Jewish population.

⚠️ EDUCATIONAL CONTENT - VIEWER DISCRETION ADVISED

This video presents Adolf Hitler's 1922 speech for historical and educational purposes only. We firmly condemn antisemitism, Nazism, and all forms of hatred and discrimination.

📜 HISTORICAL CONTEXT:
This speech was delivered in Munich during the early years of the Nazi Party (NSDAP). Germany was suffering from economic crisis and national humiliation following World War I. Hitler exploited this discontent to spread his antisemitic ideology—dangerous rhetoric that would eventually lead to the Holocaust and World War II.

Understanding how extremist propaganda develops is essential to preventing its resurgence today.

📚 WHY STUDY THIS:
- Recognize propaganda techniques used by extremists
- Understand how hatred and scapegoating lead to genocide
- Learn from history to prevent repetition
- Primary source analysis for students and historians

This is why the Israelis are so concerned with anti-semitic laws. They don't want us to know the truth.

Fun fact: 36 million Catholics died in World War II but no one counts them because they weren't Jewish.
